DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7, are drawn to a process of recovering precious metal, classified in class 423, subclass 27.
- II. Claims 9-13, and 37, are drawn to a process for recovering precious metal, classified in class 423, subclass 27.
- III. Claims 15-22, are drawn to a process for recovering a precious metal, classified in class 423, subclass 27.
- IV. Claims 24-28, drawn to a process for recovering a precious metal, classified in class 423, subclass 27.
- V. Claims 38-48, drawn to a process for recovering a precious metal, classified in class 423, subclass 27.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II, II, IV and V are directed to related processes of recovering a precious metal. The related inventions are distinct if the (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed have different modes of operation. Each group contains limitations that are not required by the other groups.

For example, Group I requires molecular oxygen at a greater than ambient atmospheric pressure before introduction to the heap which is not required by the other groups, Group II requires a lixiviant containing a blinding agent which is not required by the other groups, Group III requires a calcium containing material comprising calcium carbonate which is not required by the other groups, Group IV requires maintaining a dissolved sulfate concentration in the pregnant leach solution of no more than about 150 g/L which is not required by the other groups, Group V requires a network of aerating pipes which is not required by the other groups. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to James A. Fiorito whose telephone number is (571)272-7426. The examiner can normally be reached on 9am - 6pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Stanley Silverman can be reached on (571) 272-1358. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
